Carter Confers With Bishops

[Maryland, District of Columbia, Virginia and North Carolina] and Bishop Samuel S. Morris, Jr., president of the Council and from the 11th Episcopal District [Florida and the Bahamas].

Seated behind the President from right to left are Louis Martin, special assistance to the President, Joe McKenney, treasurer of the A.M.E. Church and Diane Hampton, Martin's deputy.
